Regardless of whether the 'suspension of enrolment' is at the student's request or a provider imposed suspension (due to misbehaviour), the period of suspension entered in PRISMS should not be included in attendance monitoring calculations.

A non genuine/non bona fide student is defined by Firbank Grammar as a student with erratic (irregular/inconsistent) course progress or does not progress in their course and does not attend/does not participate in regular classes. The School will ensure that prior to enrolment; students are made aware of the grounds on which cancellation of enrolment may occur, as provided to them via the International Student Handbook.

Firbank Grammar can suspend or cancel a student's enrolment against the student's wishes, provided that the suspension or cancellation is consistent with Firbank Grammar policies and/or Australian Law. Before suspending or cancelling a student's enrolment, the School must notify the student of its intention to take such action and allow the student 20 working days to access the complaints and appeals process. (See: Complaints and Appeals Policy).

Students are advised that a deferment or suspension of their studies may affect their visa.

Firbank Grammar is not required to wait for the outcome of any external appeals process before notifying the Department of Education and Training (DET) of the cancellation of the student's enrolment.

Students who have their enrolment suspended/cancelled are subject to the rules of the refund policy regarding any refund of fees.

Where Firbank Grammar has reason for concern for the welfare of the student or those with whom the student may come into contact, the School will cancel the student's enrolment prior to completion of any appeals process.

Students have 20 working days in which to initiate the School's Complaints and Appeals process. Notification on PRISMS will not occur until the result of the internal appeals process is known, unless extenuating circumstances relating to the welfare of the student apply, such as:

- the student is at risk of committing a criminal offence or is the subject of investigation relating to criminal matters
- the student's actual or threatened behaviour poses a threat to other staff/students/person
- student has medical or psychological problems that may affect their well-being
- the student cannot be located

If a student's visa is cancelled by Firbank Grammar, students must contact DHA within 28 days to inform DHA of their plans (to find another course, return home or access an external appeals process) and take all relevant paperwork (for example, new CoE) to DHA.

PROCEDURE

Students must apply in writing for a deferment/suspension of their studies.

All applications for deferment or suspension will be considered and the decision provided in writing to the student within 10 working days from the date of application.

The application will be assessed on its own merits by Firbank Grammar staff (documentary evidence should be included with the application) and then referred to the Principal for approval of the decision including reasons for the favourable or not favourable decision.

Firbank Grammar will only grant deferment or suspension of their studies for compassionate or compelling circumstances. If a deferment or suspension is granted, students must be notified in writing that they need to contact DHA for information of how the change may or may not affect their visa.

All outcomes of an application for deferment or suspension must be advised to students in writing and documentation and notes kept on the student file.

Firbank Grammar can suspend or cancel a student's enrolment provided that the suspension or cancellation is consistent with the School policies and/or Australian Law. Before suspending or cancelling a student's enrolment the School must notify the student of its intention to take such action and allow the student 20 working days to access the complaints and appeals process. (see: Complaints and Appeals Policy).

If the complaints and appeals policy is accessed, Firbank Grammar should not notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) of a change to the enrolment status until the internal complaints and appeals process is completed unless there are extenuating circumstances relating to the student.

Firbank Grammar must notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS when permanently cancelling a student's enrolment.

'Extenuating circumstances' relating to the welfare of the student may include, but are not limited to the following. The student:

- is missing;
- has medical concerns, severe depression or psychological issues which lead the provider to fear for the student's wellbeing;
- has engaged or threatens to engage in behaviour that is reasonably believed to endanger the student or others; or
- is at risk of committing a criminal offence.

Any claim of extenuating circumstances will need to be supported by appropriate evidence.

Firbank Grammar is not obligated to continue providing learning opportunities throughout the 20 working days or any subsequent period of appeal, however the School will provide students with work to complete outside of the classroom until the appeal process is complete via electronic means. In this instance, students must continue to meet the academic requirements of the course.

Should a student not return after a period of suspension, Firbank Grammar staff will notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS of 'student notified cessation of studies'. The 'termination reason' will be 'Student notified cessation of studies'. A comment should be entered that the 'Student did not return' or 'Student did not re-enrol'.

In this Firbank Grammar is not required to send a Notice of Intention to report letter and observe any appeals requirements, OR to notify the student of the intention to cancel their studies.

Students must be advised of their right to access the complaints and appeals process (regardless of the reason for cancellation).

Students who have their enrolment suspended are subject to the rules of the refund policy regarding any refund of fees.

Once Firbank Grammar notifies DHA via PRISMS of a student's cessation of studies, the student must leave Australia, obtain enrolment in an alternative course or apply for a different visa within 28 days of cessation. If a student chooses to leave Australia, the student's visa will be subject to cancellation.

Firbank Grammar will not authorise and report a deferment or suspension retrospectively unless there are unusual circumstances where it may be required. In this instance the School would seek advice firstly from the Regulator.

Firbank Grammar will record any 'period of exclusion' from class as absence (where the enrolment is not officially suspended on PRISMS) and include this absence in attendance monitoring calculations (potentially putting a student with marginal attendance in danger of being reported for unsatisfactory attendance).

Firbank Grammar is not required to wait for the outcome of any external appeals process before notifying The Department of Education and Training (DET) / DHA of the cancellation of the student's enrolment.

Where Firbank Grammar has reason for concern for the welfare of the student or those with whom the student may come into contact, the School will cancel the student's enrolment prior to completion of any appeals process.

In this instance Firbank Grammar WILL notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) / DHA through PRISMS that it is cancelling of a student's enrolment for disciplinary reasons and the extenuating circumstances will be entered into PRISMS and documented and kept on the student file. However, students are still able to appeal the decision from their Australian residence or home country.

Firbank Grammar will advise students it is a condition of their visa to contact DHA within 28 days to inform DHA of their plans (to find another course, return home or access an external appeals process) and to take all relevant paperwork (for example, new CoE) to DHA.

Where a student's misbehaviour leads to a criminal conviction the current visa and future visa applications may be cancelled or refused on character grounds.

Firbank Grammar must also notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) /DHA through PRISMS that it is deferring or suspending a student's enrolment if the suspension will affect the end date of the CoE. PRISMS will then cancel the original CoE, and the processing officer given the opportunity to create a new CoE with a revised end date. If it is not known when the student will return, the option to not create a new CoE at that point should be taken. Once the student has notified Firbank Grammar of their intended date of return a new COE can then be created.

Firbank Grammar notifies The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS that it is deferring or suspending a student's enrolment for a period which will affect the end date of the CoE.

In such situations, PRISMS will cancel the original CoE, and immediately offer the opportunity to create a new CoE with a more appropriate end date. If it is not known when the student will return, the option to not create a new CoE at that point should be used. Once the student has Firbank Grammar of their intended date of return a new COE can then be created.

Deferring or suspending that does not affect the end date of the COE:

Firbank Grammar notifies The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS that it is deferring or suspending a student's enrolment for a period without affecting the end date of the CoE.

In this case there is no change to the CoE or the student's enrolment status on PRISMS i.e. the student's CoE status will still be listed as studying. However, the notice of deferment or suspension will be record in PRISMS.

Prior to the expected commencement date of a course, if a student has a student visa, the status on PRISMS will be 'Visa Granted'.

On the expected course commencement date, the student's status on PRISMS automatically changes to 'Studying' and will remain as 'Studying' unless the provider notifies through PRISMS that this is incorrect.

Where a student cannot start on the expected commencement date for compassionate or compelling reasons and Firbank Grammar has agreed to the student's request for a later starting day; and the end date of the course will not be affected; the School will not defer the commencement of enrolment.

Cancelling COE

Firbank Grammar notifies The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS that it wishes to permanently cancel (terminate) the student's enrolment. Once this process is complete, the student's CoE status will be listed as 'cancelled'.

If a student commits a serious breach of the Code of Conduct/Behaviour (eg threatening the life of another student or teacher) the police will be called and an immediate cancellation of their enrolment is allowed in this circumstance. Firbank Grammar if any will then notify DET and DHA via PRISMS and call DHA for further instructions/guidance if needed.

Student does not return after suspension or holiday/break

Should a student not return after a period of suspension, Firbank Grammar staff will notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) through PRISMS that 'student notified cessation of studies'. The 'termination reason' will be 'Student notified cessation of studies'. A comment should be entered that the 'Student did not return' or 'Student did not re-enrol'.

Should a student not return to Firbank Grammar after a break/holiday, the School will notify The Department of Education and Training (DET) via PRISMS of 'student notified cessation of studies' through the course variation screen with 'termination prior to completing course' as the reason.

An additional comment should be added into PRISMS advising student did not return or re-enrol into the course. In this instance, Firbank Grammar IS NOT required to send a Notice of Intention to report or wait any appeals process before cancelling the student's visa. By not re-enrolling the student has 'inactively' advised the School that they do not intend to continue their study.

Firbank will not authorise and report a deferment or suspension retrospectively unless there are unusual circumstances where it may be required.

Students excluded from class for misbehaviour

The School will record the period of exclusion from class as absence, and include this absence in attendance monitoring calculations (potentially putting a student with marginal attendance in danger of being reported for unsatisfactory attendance) if the college is required to monitor and report on attendance.
